2. PRINCIPLES OF ENGAGEMENT

HOW DID YOU ORGANIZE THE DIALOGUE SO THAT THE PRINCIPLES WERE INCORPORATED, REINFORCED AND ENHANCED?

We convened this independent dialog after learning about "Good Food For All" as a public campaign for the United Nations Food Systems Summit that aims to encourage thoughts and actions around food as a solution to drive prosperity for people and Planet Earth. This is not prescriptive but does prompt the question "what does 'good food' mean?" for various stakeholders in various locations. Good Food For All recognizes our emotional and cultural connection to food as a source of love and livelihood while reflecting the impact food has on all areas of human life. At the Dialogue Session we presented the Summit principles and objectives, followed by trigger speakers who are public speakers talking about what good food means for them, so that participants will be encouraged to share their opinions.

HOW DID YOUR DIALOGUE REFLECT SPECIFIC ASPECTS OF THE PRINCIPLES?

ACT WITH URGENCY: We informed participants that the Dialogue provides input to Summit. Also that Mr. Guterres, the UNSG stated that food is a common thread that connects all 17 SDGs (to be achieved in 2030). COMMIT TO THE SUMMIT: We discussed the process of the Summit, including Action Tracks, and the three dialogues (global, member states, independent). BE RESPECTFUL: We informed participants about "GOOD FOOD FOR ALL," a campaign for the UN Food Systems Summit, and appreciate all inputs. RECOGNIZE COMPLEXITY: We provided examples of statements prior to the independent dialogue, that will help participants understand the complexity, and what is expected. EMBRACE MULTI-STAKEHOLDER: Our participants are those showing interests in the food systems representing the variety of professions and locations. We also have trigger speakers, public figure that explained what good food means to them. COMPLEMENT THE WORK OF OTHERS: In addition to the sessions prior to the dialogue, participants share their professions and activities, supporting their opinions. BUILD TRUST: We discussed the transparency of the summit process and information platforms, including an opportunity to be Food Systems Heroes, showing that the process is for all to be involved.

DO YOU HAVE ADVICE FOR OTHER DIALOGUE CONVENORS ABOUT APPRECIATING THE PRINCIPLES OF ENGAGEMENT?

Since the UN Food Systems Summit 2021 is a People's Summit, it is important to include wider audience in the Independent Dialogue. In other words, we should not limit the participants to those who work or active in agriculture and food only. AS an example we could invite bankers and creatives such as artists, musicians, painters, poets, etc.

3. METHOD

The outcomes of a Dialogue are influenced by the method that is used.

DID YOU USE THE SAME METHOD AS RECOMMENDED BY THE CONVENORS REFERENCE MANUAL?

Yes

No

4. DIALOGUE FOCUS & OUTCOMES

MAJOR FOCUS

We convened the independent dialog on the occasion of UN Sustainable Gastronomy Day on June 18, 2021, with the following objectives:

1. To be familiar with the UN Sustainable Gastronomy Day and the United Nations Food Systems Summit
2. To learn about "Good Food For All" and record each participant's opinion and reflection on what Good Food means
3. To build a network of individuals who care about sustainable food systems and good food, and are committed to taking real action for humanity.

OUTCOMES FOR EACH DISCUSSION TOPIC - 1/3

"Good Food means prepared with love and can unite family, friends, relatives or even strangers"

Good food for one mother of three children is food that is prepared with love and can unite family, friends, relatives, or even strangers

Good Food for a mother of four is nutritious food that meets the needs of children's growth and development, is healthy for metabolism, slightly processed, tastes good, cooked with love, purchased from local vendors and farmers, and provides physical and spiritual benefits for the family.

Good Food food is food that relates to anyone involved in it (farmers, transporters of raw materials, cooks, etc.). Good food is our culture and our love for the food. What's important is that good food should only benefit anyone involved in it.

Good Food is creating healthy future generations.

Good Food is about love that creates positive emotions and comfort.

Good Food is functional food that feeds our spiritual needs

Good food creates intimate relationship, especially if it is delicious and nutritious with good quality

OUTCOMES FOR EACH DISCUSSION TOPIC - 3/3

"Good Food means supporting local producers"

Good Food for one farmer means harvested from own garden and consumed on the same day.

Good and organic food is one that can be traced to its origin, who the farmer is, where the seeds come from, what is the pattern of planting or cultivation, or even if necessary for what and to whom the product is sold.

Good food is not only limited to food that is usually eaten and limited to taste. But it is also related to how much our lives are not influenced by things outside of us (the spirit of independence). It is necessary for us to improve the ability to process food even when (for example) there is no electricity or rice. That is the importance of mutual support and there is a bond of trust between producers and consumers, so that they can build an ecosystem, which has lots of plants in a mutualistic symbiosis with the surrounding environment.

Good Food for one chef means local, fresh, minimum waste, organic based on trust, and obtained from first hand producers. So that farmers, fishers or foragers get much greater benefits.

Good Food is good for health, good for local farmers, and good for economy.

Good Food can support local producers and the sustainability of food sources.

Good Food recognizes that food justice is intersectional.
